

The Priesthood of All Believers

And coming to Him as to a living stone which has been rejected by men, but is choice and precious in the sight of God, you also, as living stones, are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ (1 Pet. 2:4-5 NASB).

Under the old covenant, only the Levites could serve as priests. Priests had two functions: (1) they offered up sacrifices in worship, and (2) they were to “to teach the sons of Israel all the statutes which the LORD has spoken to them through Moses” (Lev. 10:11).

Under the new covenant, however, every Christian shares in the priesthood. Every Christian has the responsibility to worship and to teach others the unsearchable riches of Christ. “But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God’s people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy” (1 Pet. 2:9-10 ESV).

There are souls all around your neighborhood that need the gospel of Jesus Christ, and God has asked every Christian to be involved in proclaiming the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Don’t Be Afraid to Fail

You overcame failure many times already. You fell down often when you started to walk. You almost drowned when you first learned to swim. You likely missed the ball when you first swung a bat. R. H. Macy failed seven times before his New York store caught on. Babe Ruth struck out 1,330 times but also hit 714 home runs. Don’t worry about failure. Worry about the chances you miss when you don’t even try.

Birthdays and Anniversaries

11/11 – Marilyn Deet

Memory Verse of the Week:

Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner, but share with me in the sufferings for the gospel according to the power of God, who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace which was given to us in Christ Jesus before time began, but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who has abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, to which I was appointed a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

II Tim 1:8 - 11

(This is a good passage to memorize, as Allan encouraged us all to do last week.)

Bible Question of the Week:

What relationship was Mary, the mother of Jesus, to Elizabeth, the mother of John the Baptist?

Last Week’s Question and Answer:

Jesus lived in Capernaum, which was in what two tribes of Israel?

Zebulun and Naphtali, Matt 4:13
